B-283140 Many high school districts we reviewed have developed partnerships with Schools Partner With Health local health care organizations to provide a range of health-related services Care Organizations to to student athletes. These organizations provide student athletes with free Provide Athletic Accident pre-participation physicals, injury evaluation services, access to Services physicians, and rehabilitation services. More specifically, The West Coast Sports Medicine Foundation, a nonprofit charitable organization, provides approximately 12, 000 high school students at 25 Los Angeles area schools with the opportunity to participate in school-based sports. The foundation provides student athletes with (1) free (no cost to the athlete or family) athletic accident insurance coverage, (2) athletic training to reduce and mitigate injuries, and (3) access to sports. The Sport Physiology and Orthopaedic Rehabilitation Treatment (SPORT) Clinic in Riverside, California, has contracted with area high schools to provide a program for the care and prevention of athletic injuries. Health care officials at the SPORT Clinic educate student athletes to prevent or reduce athletic injuries, advise athletes on the care and treatment of their injuries, and provide treatment of minor athletic injuries. In addition, the clinics facilities are available for use by high school athletes. Medical consultation, treatment, and facilities are available free of charge for each injury, for two weeks from the initial visit. The Methodist Sports Medicine Center at the Methodist Hospital and St. Vincents Medicine in Indianapolis have had informal agreements with the Indianapolis Independent...
