Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Teaching of Spelling The statutes of the state require, and the public demands, that spelling be taught in the public schools. Intelligent persons realize that the faultless spelling of English words is an art difficult to attain, much more so for some persons than for others. Nevertheless, failure to spell correctly is commonly regarded as a sign of illiteracy. The purpose of this monograph is to offer constructive suggestions to teachers concerning the teaching of a subject in which there is so much popular interest. It is believed that good teaching - not merely hearing lessons - will bring about good results in this, as well as in the other activities of the school. Good teaching is dependent upon the size of classes, upon the number of words taught, upon the judicious selection of words, upon the manner of presentation to the class, or the plan of study with the teacher, upon the pupils independent methods of study, and upon the method of testing or conducting a recitation; but above all, it is dependent...
