Neuware - Thesis (M.A.) from the year 2009 in the subject Orientalism / Sinology - Arabistic, grade: 90, Ben Gurion University, course: Arabic Literature, language: English, abstract: In 1973 the English translation For Bread Alone of Mohamed Choukri s Al-Khubz Al-Hafi was published. This first part of Choukri s extraordinary autobiography is written in a very simplistic style, which Paul Bowles, the translator of For Bread Alone, also described as a technique: Choukri s narration is the work of an illiterate who has not yet learned to classify what goes into his memory (5). The novel illustrates the protagonist s struggle to survive under exceptionally difficult circumstances, namely extreme poverty and violence. Indeed, Mohamed Choukri states that all my life has been a response to one challenge after the other. The novel is constructed as a rihla (journey)- both an earlier external one of physical movement, and a later one, which this paper will describe as internal. First this paper will explore the external journey, which leads the protagonist Mohamed to different cities and places, and it...

Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better than never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.
