The Louisiana Historical Society possesses very valuable books and documents pertaining to the history of the colony under the French and Spanish dominations. It was on these documents that Charles Gcy.ure based bis History of Louisiana. written in French, and published in 1813 and 13-17. aid also his History of Louisiana in English, which was republished in 1003 by Miss Grace Kin and Prof.1. I. Flcklen. The Society holds mouthiy meetings, at which original historical documents are exhibited and papers are read by members. The Society has honorary and corresponding members in this and other States and abroad. Every effort is made to bring the Society into close touch with other historical societies of the United States. On the 2d of May. 1901, the Society had the honor of receiving and welcoming the Hon. William McKiniev, the twenty-sixth President of the United States, in the venerable Cabildo Building, and to hear within its walis patriotic expressions of his great interest in the welfare of the State of Louisiana, and of the important part the acquisition of Louisiana occupied in the advancement and the history of the United States. A few months later the beloved President was struck down by an assassin. On the 16th of October, 1901, the Society adopted resolntions in memory of the martyred President, concluding as follows: This Society, in common with ail...
