Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from True Education: Matriculation Sermon, the Woman s College of Baltimore, October Ninth, 1904 The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to hi?n that is weary Isaiah 50:4 The two most important things in this world are life and education. Without life there could be no achievement, no consciousness, no improveableness. Inheritance, association, ministry, enjoyment would be alike impossible. Everything would be sterile, unresponsive and without initiative. Without education there would be no development. Everything would remain in statu quo, or deteriorate. The term education from the Latin educere, to draw out, designates the process or result of drawing out, training or developing the faculties or elements of the individual. We cannot think of any form of derived life without associating the idea of education with it. Life always manifests itself by a series of co-ordinated actions and reactions through which it is maintained and more or less modified. Every form of derived life must live, if at all, within conditions...
