Madam: In approaching the important problem of the introduction of colonial autonomy into the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico, a task which, together with that of the pacification of the island of Cuba, constitutes the obligations which the Government has contracted toward the nation, the ministers are of opinion that detailed explanations and comments on the complex matters which the project embraces should give place to a sober but complete exposition of its fundamental characteristics, of the spheres of action to which it extends, and of the consequences which, in their judgment, the system which they propose to Your Majesty for the government of the Spanish Antilles will produce. Criticism and analysis will very soon elucidate what refers to the details of this system; the essential principles and the spirit of the decree are all that can properly be set forth here and at this time. To do this is the more necessary, since the...
