Little fissures open larger stress fractures as first he is injured and then taken hostage by a gang of thugs-along with a troubled teenage boy. With law enforcement closing in, can Markinson keep himself from falling completely apart long enough to protect the kid and avoid a return trip to prison? An action-packed tale of one man's search for the truth, and his desperate escape from injustice. It's a tale of love, hope, and decency in the face of almost-certain death. Kevin Markinson is a truly unique hero, flawed and dangerous, but with an unbreakable strain of nobility that makes this story so compelling. -Mark Pryor, author, Hugo Marston series and As She Lay Sleeping Stress Fractures is a fine criminal novel involving society's outcasts - an accused killer and a young, troubled boy - who help each other and learn from each other as they try to make their way through a hostile world.
