Excerpt: . . . a position in which he purchased the store and was appointed the postmaster of the parish, in which capacity, as merchant and postmaster, he has continued to the present, a period of thirty years. He m. Ridgebury, Dec. 31, 1854, Polly Maria Rockwell (see 3573 ), dau. of John T. and Sally Benedict Rockwell, of Ridgebury, where she was born June 8, 1833. They built a new house near the Congregational church which sufficed for both a store and dwelling. He was converted and baptized into the Congregational church, Jan. 2, 1842, as was also his wife, May 2, 1852, where they served the church in leading the music, he the choir and she playing the organ. He was elected an officer of the society there and has served the society as such ever since. He was also elected justice of the peace and selectman for many terms, and representative in the state legislature, in which he served two terms--1868 and 1872. His public spirit was manifested especially in improving and enlarging the old burying grounds (which had been neglected), beautifying it with many rare trees, and laying it out with avenues and walks and erecting a handsome iron fence adjoining the highway. For many years the care of the church and the meeting house devolved upon him principally. He was living in the same house which he built in 1854, in the autumn of 1889. He became well known as a statistician and...
